CANDIDATES SHOW EARLY INTEREST IN TOWN ELECTION

Candidates Take Out Petitions for 3 Important Offices

Early activity on the part of candidates who will seek office at the forthcoming April election indicates that lively contests will be staged for each of the three township offices to be filled this year.

Terms expiring this year are those of a supervisor and highway commissioner, while a justice of the peace is to be elected to fill the vacancy caused by the death of the late Samuel E. Tarbell who had served only a year of his four year term.

Naber Re-enters Politics.

Supervisor William A. Rosing, candidate for re-election, will be opposed by Barney Naber, formerly Antioch township's supervisor, but who retired from the office six years ago when Rosing was first elected. Friends have urged Naber to become a candidate for the office, according to those active in supporting the former supervisor.

J. B. Dickson, operator of a tire and battery shop in Antioch, and Ray Sorenson of Channel Lake, are the candidates for justice of the peace, the office left vacant by the death of Tarbell. Both candidates are experienced in politics. Dickson was once a member of the North Dakota legislature, and Sorenson is the son of Einar Sorenson, Democratic leader, of Channel Lake.

Three for Commissioner.

One of the hardest fought races in the township, according to political railbirds, will be that for highway commissioner, which brings out the incumbent, Carl Barthel, and Frank Dunn, former commissioner, who was defeated by Barthel three years ago. A petition is also being circulated for Ned Bates, of Grass Lake.

Formerly the term of office of commissioner was 2 years, but a special act of the legislature designated the term beginning in 1932 as a three year term so that the election date in the future would be the same as that for supervisor. All offices are now for terms of four years.

Tomorrow will be the first day for filing petitions for town office. Clerk C. F. Richards announced, and the last day will be February 26. A petition was taken out this week by Einar Sorenson, the town clerk said, but the Channel Lake man did not say who the petition was for. Many calls for applications for absent voters' ballots indicates early and very active interest in the election, according to Clerk Richards.

200 FIREMEN ATTEND INGLESIDE MEETING

Twenty Departments Represented at the Monthly Meeting Monday

Two hundred Lake county firemen representing the 20 departments were present at the monthly meeting of the county firemen's association held Monday night at Tanc's pavilion, Ingleside. Departments on the western side of the county arranged the program and provided the entertainment.

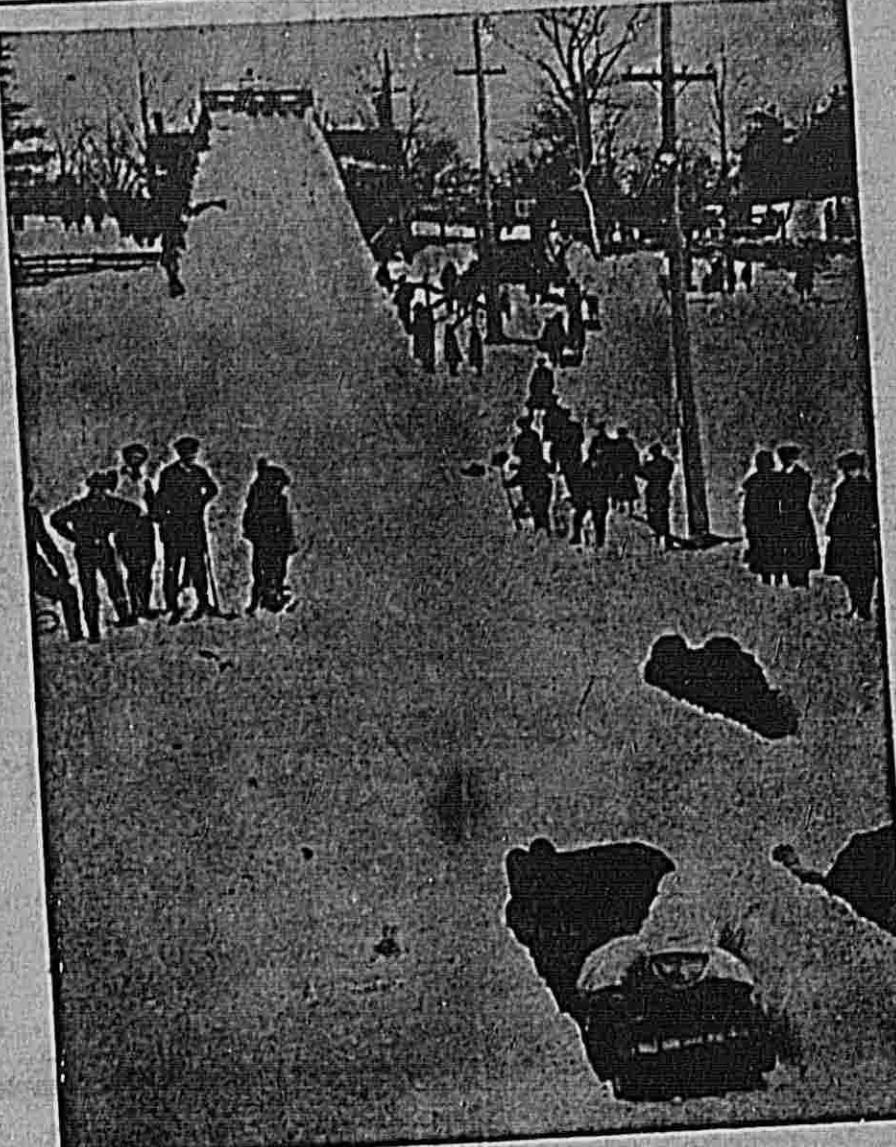

After the business session the firemen saw a picture show and settled down to roast beef, radishes, cheese, rye bread and coffee.

The February meeting will be held at Highwood.

EXPLAIN FINANCIAL STATUS.

Inability to collect money owed is responsible for the financial straits of the county, rather than alleged mismanagement, according to facts contained in a statement issued by members of the county board. In this statement it is pointed out that there would be a surplus of $132,122 if all bills due the county, including taxes and the amounts due from the townships, were paid, and the money could be obtained from closed banks. Collection of the tax money and that due from townships is to be pressed, it is explained.

FORTY AND 8 AND ELKS TO SPONSOR BENEFIT SHOW

Crippled Children Will Receive Proceeds from Boxing Show Feb. 28

The Lake County Crippled Children's Clinic will receive the proceeds from a boxing show at the Waukegan township high school gym on the night of Thursday, February 28. This year the work of raising funds to carry on the clinic's program has been assumed by the Forty-and-Eight posts of the country, and the Waukegan lodge of the B.P.O.E.

Henry F. Wallenwein, a justice of the peace in Waukegan, is general chairman of this year's show. Joe Daly and George McGaughay will assist him. Seven boxing bouts and one wrestling match, or eight boxing bouts will be arranged for the 1935 card, according to the committee. Antioch local committeemen are Dr. L. John Zimmerman for the Forty-and-Eight and Herb J. Vos for the Elks lodge.

In order to make it possible for everyone to attend, the price of admission has been set at 40 cents. If the expected attendance of between 2,000 and 3,000 is attained, the crippled children's fund will profit by at least a thousand dollars.

The general committee in charge of the show will meet next Monday at 6:30 p. m. at the Elks club.

Tickets for the show will be on sale at the Antioch News office and at King's drug store.

Antioch Merchants Co-Operate With "J.B." In New Play Series

Antioch business firms whose names appear in this issue in the advertisement of the Crystal theatre again are co-operating with J. B. Rotnour for another series of five performances of spoken drama at the Crystal. The Company is giving some real performances, according to the merchants who have responded enthusiastically to co-operating to make the performances possible for the entertainment of the people of Antioch and vicinity.

Last Friday two new members of the Company, Miss Mary Wellman and David Reese, won favor with theatre-goers in their portrayal of lead parts in "The Makin' of Maggie Muldoon." They will appear in this week's play, "Hearts of Gold," which J. B. says will take one back to the good old horse and buggy days.

Free tickets may be had as usual from the advertising firms. The play starts promptly at 8:15. Better go early, as capacity houses greet the players each Friday night.

ANTIOCH MERCHANTS GIVE EXTRA VALUE

Friday and Saturday of this week, February 1 and 2, will be Extra Value days in Antioch, and merchants have made special efforts to give their customers big value for their money during these two days. Offered in "Extra Values" will be wearing apparel, household necessities, food and many other items of general merchandise that may be procured at bargain prices during the sale. Merchants participating will display the signs "Extra Value Sale" in store windows.

A perusal of our advertising columns will give an inkling of what is being offered by local merchants.

PIONEER ANTIOCH RESIDENT DEAD

Thomas E. McGreal Succumbs to Heart Attack; 85 Years Old

Thomas E. McGreal, 85, long a resident of this community, died early Wednesday morning at his home at 1025 Main street, Antioch, following several weeks of illness. He had been ailing for many months but was not seriously ill until recently when his heart began to fail.

He was born in Ballina, County Mayo, Ireland, Nov. 1849, and came to America with his parents when he was five years of age. The family settled in Kenosha county, Wisconsin, and this community was his home during the greater part of his life, with the exception of a few years spent in Provo, Utah, where he was employed in the silver mining business. It was in Utah that he met and married Rebecca Phyllis, to whom he would have been married 54 years on Feb. 26. The family farm homestead is three miles northeast of Antioch, in Bristol township. Since his retirement seven years ago he has made his home in Antioch.

Besides the wife, seven children survive: Thomas, of Waukegan; Arthur and John of Antioch; Mrs. Florence Haun, Kenosha; Mrs. Katherine Reilke, Antioch; Mrs. Jessie Quincey and Mrs. Margaret Eldredge, both of Cary, Idaho. Relatives here today were waiting for messages from the daughters in Idaho before completing arrangements for the funeral.

Firemen to Give Free Dance Saturday

The Antioch Fire Department will give a free dance at the old Danish Hall on east Ida avenue on Saturday evening of this week. The public is invited to be guests of the firemen for the evening. Chief James Stearns, with William Anderson and Bob Wilton, assistants, are completing arrangements for the affair.

CRIBB HOMESTEAD AND FERNANDEZ RESIDENCE ARE DESTROYED BY FIRE

Antioch Department Gets Distant Calls on Coldest Days

Antioch Firemen had a busy time last week when three fires on successive days called them far from town on the coldest days of the year. Following the fire early Thursday when the local department succeeded in saving the Odd Fellows building and store of John Nett at Wilmot, a call late Friday took the firemen to the old Cribb homestead west of Lake Villa which despite the efforts of firemen from Lake Villa and Antioch and the bucket brigade staged by neighbors, was completely destroyed. Water was used from cisterns and tank trucks but the supply was not sufficient to extinguish the flames before the building was almost a total loss.

Old Landmark.

The homestead, which was the birthplace of John Cribb, village president of Lake Villa, was occupied in recent years by the Carl Bock family. Bock was in Lake Villa at the time of the fire and his wife and child were at the home of a neighbor. An uncle, Simon Gallagher, was in the home, and stated that the fire apparently started from an overheated chimney.

After water in tanks and cisterns was exhausted, trucks were sent to Cedar Lake where a hole was chopped in the ice and the water supply replenished. Neighbors worked with pails in fighting the flames.

The house was an old landmark in the district.

Grass Lake Home Burned.

Flames Sunday destroyed the home of Joseph Fernandez on Grass Lake at an estimated loss of $4,000 not including clothing. The flames were beyond control when Antioch firemen arrived and they concentrated their efforts on saving the garage which housed the family sedan. Mrs. Fernandez and children left the afternoon before to visit their parents in Trevor, Wis., and Fernandez, who is employed by a trucking concern, was also away at the time. George Keulman, a roomer at the home, was in Antioch. Keulman's clothing as well as that of the family was burned. A neighbor noticed the flames and called the fire department.

An official counter and an official checker to assist the court will be appointed by Judge Persons at the opening of the case for 9:15 o'clock Monday morning.

JUDGE SETS DATE FOR SHERIFF VOTE RECOUNT

Sorenson Feels Out Legislators On Appropriation

Einar Sorenson, of the Illinois department of waterways, was in Springfield the first of the week interviewing assemblymen regarding the proposed appropriation for the improvement of the chain of lakes and the Fox river valley. The local Democratic leader reports that assemblymen feel friendly toward the project.

What Would You Do?

What would you do with one hundred thousand dollars if you had that amount of cash placed in your hands right now? This question was put to an Antioch business man the other day. His answer was: "I'd put every nickel of it into real estate right in this locality." The man has a reputation for business acumen beyond the average, and his remark voiced an abiding confidence in his home community. Future generations will call him long-headed.

URGE STATION REOPENING.

Reopening of the Great Lakes Naval training station is urged in a resolution adopted by the Waukegan city council this week. Copies of the resolution will be sent to senators and congressmen from Illinois with an urgent appeal to do all in their power to bring about the desired action.

RIDDLE ME THIS

A printer got into this mess. He is Paul Miller, foreman of the Bell Printing Company, Middleboro, Kentucky. This is the way Paul writes to explain his domestic entanglement:

"Last year I asked her to be my wife and she gave me a decidedly negative reply, so to get even I married her mother. Then my father married the girl.

"When I married the girl's mother the girl became my daughter, and my father married my daughter, so he became my son.

"When my father married my daughter, she became my mother.

"If my father is my son and my daughter is my mother, who am I?"

"My mother's mother is my wife and must be my grandmother.

"So being my grandmother's husband, I must be my own grandfather. And there you are."

NEW SERVICE AFFORDED TO SUBSCRIBERS

Home Delivery Inaugurated In Antioch and Lake Villa

Carrier delivery of the Antioch News for subscribers in Lake Villa and Antioch starts with this edition, inaugurating a new system of direct home service which will supplant the regular mail delivery so far as these two towns are concerned and will bring each issue to the readers one day earlier than was possible under the old method.

The circulation department has been busy during the week laying out the territory in routes to give the quickest possible service and to avoid failure of delivery to any subscriber.

Direct from Press.

The carrier boys will take the papers direct from the press as soon as they are printed Thursday afternoon and will cover their designated routes leaving the papers at the homes of all subscribers. The papers for Lake Villa will be taken there by auto where a staff of delivery boys will be on hand to handle distribution.

The new system is the result of numerous requests from subscribers who want their papers on Thursday, the day of publication, and who have urged the inauguration of a metropolitan delivery.

The change will also be of great value to advertisers who will be able to get their sales message in the hands of consumers on Thursday night with beneficial effects on Friday business.

Care has been taken in the selection of the personnel of the delivery staff and the News is confident that subscribers will be given courteous and efficient service.

No Extra Cost for Service.

The carriers will also handle collections, making calls at the expiration of each five-week period to collect 15 cents for the five issues delivered. The plan will not only divide payments into small convenient amounts but will give the subscriber the benefit of the same subscription cost in spite of the added service.

The carriers will also be solicitors and will be glad to take orders for delivery from any non-subscribers and start delivery immediately. Subscribers who wish to continue receiving their papers by mail may do so. Subscriptions paid in advance at this time will in no wise be affected by the change in delivery service.

It is hoped that the new system will function without a failure on the day of its inauguration, but if by any chance the paper is not delivered to any subscriber, a call to this office, telephone 43, will result in an immediate delivery.

STROKE FATAL TO WILMOT MAN

Frederick V. Pella Dead at 77; Leaves Six Children

Frederick Vincent Pella, 77, long a resident of Wilmot community, died at 1:30 o'clock Tuesday morning following a paralytic stroke Saturday, at his farm home in Randall township.

He was born in Germany April 4, 1858, and came to America in 1883. After a few years residence in Chicago he came to Wilmot. He was married to Miss Matilda Kans, who preceded him in death four years ago. Six children survive: Charles and Fred of Burlington; Herman, at Home, Mrs. Bertha Isley; Mrs. Grace Goodman, and Mrs. Anna Lukotke, of Kenosha.

FIVE MILLION ACRES INCLUDED IN NATIONAL FOREST PURCHASE UNITS

Buy 9,590 Acres in Illinois at a Cost of $57,993

The establishment of 15 new National Forest Purchase Units with a gross area of over five million acres, and the approval of the purchase of 193,360 acres in existing National Forests, was announced by E. W. Tinker, Regional Forester of the North Central Region, after he had received telegraphic confirmation of action taken by the National Forest Reservation Commission meeting in Washington.

In Wisconsin, the purchase of 17,580 acres within the present National Forest boundaries was approved, at a cost of $49,470. 59,330 acres were approved for purchase in Michigan, costing $287,713; in Minnesota 35,447 acres were approved at a cost of $92,860; in Missouri 39,560 acres were approved at a total cost of $86,402; and in Illinois 9,590 acres were approved at a cost of $57,993.

The action taken by the National Forest Reservation Commission authorizes the Forest Service to proceed with the purchase of idle timbered lands and waste lands in new forest areas, to set up administrative and protective organizations, and to set about to reforest the denuded acres and protect whatever forest resources still remain on the land, and to provide recreational facilities and protect and regulate wild life resources. Supervisors' headquarters have been tentatively designated at Chillicothe, Ohio, Bedford, Indiana, and Ottumwa, Iowa, in those states where previously there had been no National forests.

PLANS COMPLETED FOR T. B. LUNCHEON

The annual luncheon meeting of the Lake County Tuberculosis Association will be held at the Waukegan hotel Wednesday, January 30 at 12 o'clock noon. Dr. W. H. Watterson of Edward Hines, Jr. hospital at Hines, Ill., will be the guest speaker. He formerly practiced in Waukegan and North Chicago and founded the Lake Breeze tuberculosis sanitarium in this city. W. P. Shahan, executive secretary of the state tuberculosis association also will be present.

The public is cordially invited to attend the meeting. Reservations for the luncheon should be made at the association office by next Monday. The Board of directors of the association will meet directly after the meeting to elect officers for the ensuing year.

The Tuberculosis association requests that all persons who have not yet paid for their Christmas Seals, please do so as soon as possible.

Reminders were sent out several days ago to those who had not responded but very few have answered these. The association is anxious to account for all seals within the next few days so that the seal sale may be brought to a close in the near future.

There are over 4,000 of the 14,000 letters sent out which have not been heard from up to the present time.

TO DIG UP SITE OF JAMESTOWN COLONY

Hope to Uncover Story of First Settlement.

Washington.—A company of 200 men of the Civilian Conservation Corps will be assigned to excavate Jamestown Island, where in 1607 the first permanent English settlement was founded in America. The excavation work will be conducted to uncover the story, as written in the 300-year-old foundations erected by 105 colonists of the settlement, for the official records of the national park service. Approval of the project was announced by Robert Fehner, director of emergency conservation work.

Jamestown Island, in Virginia, is a unit of the Colonial National monument. In the party that established the settlement was Capt. John Smith, who arrived in the hold of the tiny vessel in iron but soon was released to become a leader of the colony and one of the romantic figures of the Colonial days. It was a few years after the arrival of the party that John Rolfe married Pocahontas.

After years of tragedy and suffering, including Indian massacres, famine, fire and pestilence, Jamestown became the center of a prosperous colony. In 1609, after a vote by the General Assembly, the seat of government of Virginia was moved from Jamestown to Middle Plantation, now Williamsburg. With the passing of the capital Jamestown was abandoned and reclaimed by wilderness.

The Association for the Preservation of Virginia Antiquities several years ago obtained about twenty acres of land on the island where a number of early American relics were found. Recently the remainder of the island was purchased by the federal government for national park purposes.

Plans for surveying the island and the locating of the foundations of the early homes have been made by B. Floyd Flickinger, superintendent of the Colonial National monument. At present several sites are being considered for the camp of the C. C. C. company, which soon is to be moved from Yorktown to Jamestown. A level open space near the bridge connecting the island with the mainland has been chosen tentatively. Once the camp is installed it is planned to survey the entire island by dividing it into 100 square foot areas and exploring each separately.

Summer Accidents Fatal

Summer is an especially hazardous season for fatal accidents. The mortality rate is 25 per cent greater than in winter or spring and 16 per cent higher than in fall.

THE ANTIQUE NEWS, ANTIQUE, ILLINOIS

THURSDAY, JANUARY 24, 1935

This Week in Washington

by RALPH E. CHURCH

Washington, D. C., January 19—With the possible exception of two or more vacancies on certain committees, last Monday Jan. 14th the House completed its organization with the adoption of the resolution of Bertrand H. Snell, Republican Floor Leader, making the Committee on Appropriations for the Republican membership. On the previous Friday (11th) Robert T. Doughton, Chairman of the Ways and Means Committee, introduced a like resolution from the Democratic party. The House is now ready to engage in the intensive work of this Session.

The public is cordially invited to attend the meeting. Reservations for the luncheon should be made at the association office by next Monday. The Board of directors of the association will meet directly after the meeting to elect officers for the ensuing year.

The Tuberculosis association requests that all persons who have not yet paid for their Christmas Seals, please do so as soon as possible.

Reminders were sent out several days ago to those who had not responded but very few have answered these.

The association is anxious to account for all seals within the next few days so that the seal sale may be brought to a close in the near future.

There are over 4,000 of the 14,000 letters sent out which have not been heard from up to the present time.

Languages of the World
The languages of the world, according to origin, history of nationality, are placed in the following great groups: (1) Indo-European (including Teutonic, Romance, Slavic, Celtic, Keltic, Iranian, Armenian and Indian languages); (2) Ural-Altaic languages; (3) Caucasian; (4) Malayo-Polynesian; (5) the monosyllabic or isolated languages; (6) Japanese or Korean languages; (7) Hamito-Semitic; (8) Bantu languages; (9) languages of the interior of Africa; (10) Dravidian; (11) American Indian. There is another group called "unclassified languages."

Meaning of "California"

If the name of the Golden State were reduced to its Spanish interpretation, it is very probable that the aggressive advertising of its climate would be largely nullified, for literally "California" is a combination of two Spanish words meaning "hot furnace" writes G. R. Turner in the Kansas City Times. The Spaniards, who were the first white men to explore the state, gave to it this name because their interest was not in the cool verdant lands of the seacoast, but in the hot arid sections of the interior where it was believed gold was to be found.

It was my privilege to be assigned to the Committee on Naval Affairs and the Committee on Patents. The first meeting of Naval Affairs, held in the regular committee room, was taken up with the sub-committee designations. On the following morning Navy Swanson.

Congress is functioning with unusual care, although many heated controversies are anticipated on proposed legislation. In less than two hours the Senate passed the Independent Officers Appropriation bill, carrying nearly $800,000,000 for such agencies as the Federal Trade Commission and Tariff Commission. The House spent only two days on the bill, and a large part of that time was consumed in general debate rather than on the measure itself.

On Thursday Allen T. Treadway, Ranking Minority Member of the Committee on Ways and Means, sharply criticized the Administration in its Reciprocal Trade Agreements with foreign countries. He stated that the method will be through the issuance of Government bonds for the financing.

To date an even dozen bonus bills have been introduced. The proponents of the "Patman Bonus Bill" and the "Vinson Bonus Bill" are respectively marshalling their forces. One distinct difference between these two measures is that the Patman Bill provides for the issuance of $2,200,000 United States notes as a method of payment. The Vinson Bill makes no provision for the method of payment, although it is stated that the method will be through the issuance of Government bonds for the financing.

On the Fourth of July, 1776, the Continental congress convened in Philadelphia to vote upon adoption of the Declaration of Independence and thus decide whether the thirteen colonies should secede from the British empire.

Before the Pennsylvania delegation arrived, noted G. R. Turner in the Kansas City Times, twelve states had voted, with the result that six were in favor of independence and six were opposed to separation from the mother country. When the Pennsylvanians came in, John Morton cast the deciding vote for independence. Thus Pennsylvania, by its vote, decided the great issue and rightly earned the popular name of "the Keystone State."

The Six Toughest

The six toughest plants in the United States are the cottonwood, rabbit bush, aromatic sumach, a shrubby penny-royal, yucca and the peculiar gymnosperm, Ephedra. They are so hardy that they are able to maintain themselves in the White Sands of New Mexico, a deposit that is 98 per cent pure gypsum, located in an area virtually without rainfall.

CANDIDATES SHOW EARLY INTEREST IN TOWN ELECTION

Candidates Take Out Petitions for 3 Important Offices

Early activity on the part of candidates who will seek office at the forthcoming April election indicates that lively contests will be staged for each of the three township offices to be filled this year.

Terms expiring this year are those of supervisor and highway commissioner, while a justice of the peace is to be elected to fill the vacancy caused by the death of the late Samuel E. Tarbell who had served only a year of his four year term.

Naber Re-enters Politics.

Supervisor William A. Rosing, candidate for re-election, will be opposed by Barney Naber, formerly Antioch township's supervisor, but who retired from the office six years ago when Rosing was first elected. Friends have urged Naber to become a candidate for the office, according to those active in supporting the former supervisor.

J. B. Dickson, operator of a tire and battery shop in Antioch, and Ray Sorenson of Channel Lake, are the candidates for justice of the peace, the office left vacant by the death of Tarbell. Both candidates are experienced in politics. Dickson was once a member of the North Dakota legislature, and Sorenson is the son of Einar Sorenson, Democrats leader, of Channel Lake.

Three for Commissioner.

One of the hardest fought races in the township, according to political railbirds, will be that for highway commissioner, which brings out the incumbent, Carl Barthel, and Frank Dunn, former commissioner, who was defeated by Barthel three years ago. A petition is also being circulated for Ned Bates, of Grass Lake.

Formerly the term of office of commissioner was 2 years, but a special act of the legislature designated the term beginning in 1932 as a three year term so that the election date in the future would be the same as that for supervisor. All offices are now for terms of four years.

Tomorrow will be the first day for filing petitions for town office, Town Clerk C. F. Richards announced, and the last day will be February 26. A petition was taken out this week by Einar Sorenson, the town clerk said, but the Channel Lake man did not say who the petition was for. Many calls for applications for absent voters' ballots indicates early and very active interest in the election, according to Clerk Richards.

200 FIREMEN ATTEND INCLESIDE MEETING

Twenty Departments Represented at the Monthly Meeting Monday

Two hundred Lake county firemen representing the 20 departments were present at the monthly meeting of the county firemen's association held Monday night at Tanc's pavilion, Ingleside. Departments on the western side of the county arranged the program and provided the entertainment.

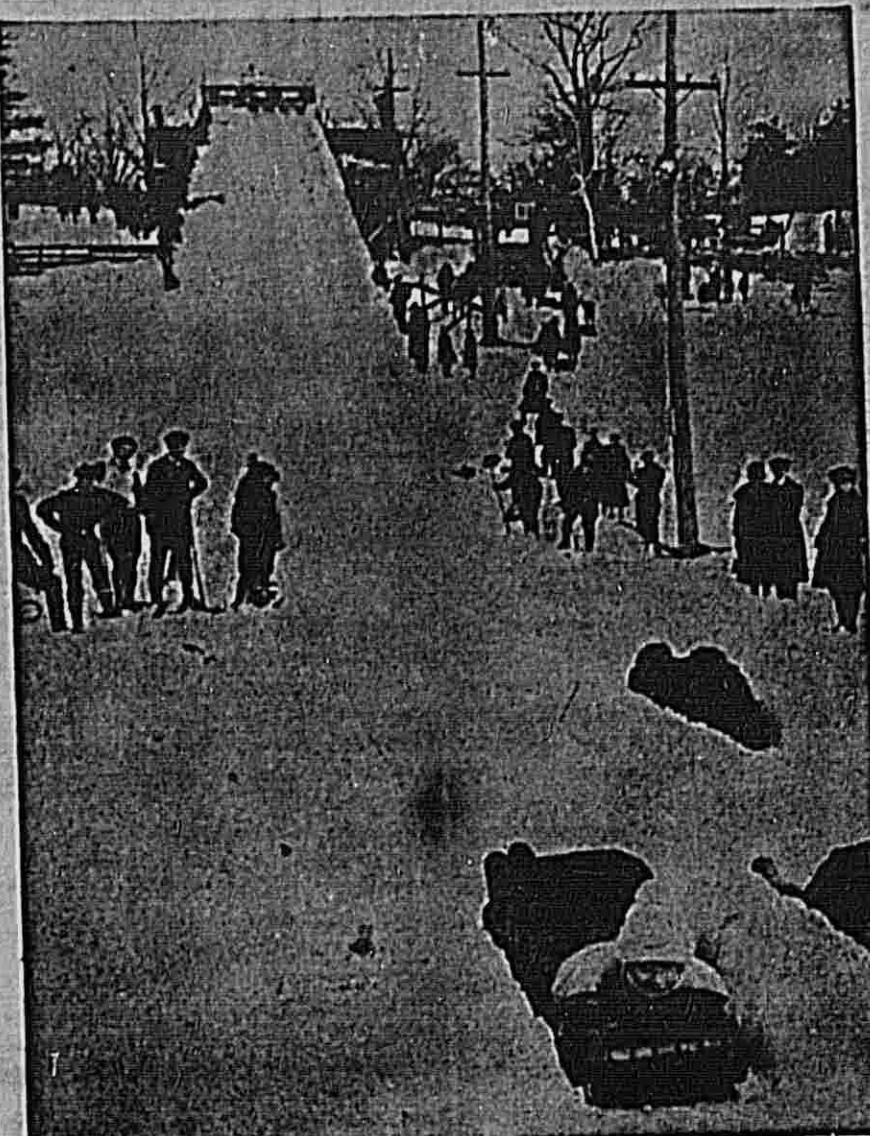

After the business session the firemen saw a picture show and settled down to roast beef, radishes, cheese, rye bread and coffee.

The February meeting will be held at Highwood.

EXPLAIN FINANCIAL STATUS.

Inability to collect money owed is responsible for the financial straits of the county, rather than alleged mismanagement, according to facts contained in a statement issued by members of the county board. In this statement it is pointed out that there would be a surplus of $122,122 if all bills due the county, including taxes and the amounts due from the townships, were paid, and the money could be obtained from closed banks. Collection of the tax money and that due from townships is to be pressed, it is explained.

FORTY AND 8 AND ELKS TO SPONSOR BENEFIT SHOW

Crippled Children Will Receive Proceeds from Boxing Show Feb. 28

The Lake County Crippled Children's Clinic will receive the proceeds from a boxing show at the Waukegan township high school gym on the night of Thursday, February 28. This year the work of raising funds to carry on the clinic's program has been assumed by the Forty-and-Eight posts of the country, and the Waukegan lodge of the B.P.O.E.

Henry P. Wallenwein, a justice of the peace in Waukegan, is general chairman of this year's show. Joe Daly and George McGaughy will assist him. Seven boxing bouts and one wrestling match, or eight boxing bouts will be arranged for the 1935 card, according to the committee. Antioch local committeemen are Dr. L. John Zimmerman for the Forty-and-Eight and Herb J. Vos for the Elks lodge.

In order to make it possible for everyone to attend, the price of admission has been set at 40 cents. If the expected attendance of between 2,000 and 3,000 is attained, the crippled children's fund will profit by at least a thousand dollars.

The general committee in charge of the show will meet next Monday at 6:30 p.m. at the Elks club.

Tickets for the show will be on sale at the Antioch News office and at King's drug store.

Antioch Merchants Co-Operate With "J.B." In New Play Series

Antioch business firms whose names appear in this issue in the advertisement of the Crystal theatre again are co-operating with J. B. Rotour for another series of five performances of spoken drama at the Crystal. The Company is giving some real performances, according to the merchants who have responded enthusiastically in co-operating to make the performances possible for the entertainment of the people of Antioch and vicinity.

Last Friday two new members of the Company, Miss Mary Wellman and David Reese, won favor with theatre-goers in their portrayal of lead parts in "The Makin' of Maggie Mooloon." They will appear in this week's play, "Hearts of Gold," which J. B. says will take one back to the good old horse and buggy days.

Free tickets may be had as usual from the advertising firms. The play starts promptly at 8:15. Better go early, as capacity houses greet the players each Friday night.

The Antioch Fire Department will give a free dance at the old Danish Hall on east Ida avenue on Saturday evening of this week. The public is invited to be guests of the firemen for the evening. Chief James Stearns, with William Anderson and Bob Wilton, assistants, are completing arrangements for the affair.

Thomas E. McGreal Succumbs to Heart Attack; 85 Years Old

Thomas E. McGreal, 85, long a resident of this community, died early Wednesday morning at his home at 1025 Main street, Antioch, following several weeks of illness. He had been ailing for many months but was not seriously ill until recently when his heart began to fail.

He was born in Ballina, County Mayo, Ireland, Nov. 25, 1849, and came to America with his parents when he was five years of age. The family settled in Kenosha county, Wisconsin, and this community was his home during the greater part of his life, with the exception of a few years spent in Provo, Utah, where he was employed in the silver mining business. It was in Utah that he met and married Rebecca Phyllis, to whom he would have been married 54 years on Feb. 26. The family farm homestead is three miles northeast of Antioch, in Bristol township. Since his retirement seven years ago he has made his home in Antioch.

Besides the wife, seven children survive: Thomas, of Waukegan; Arthur and John of Antioch; Mrs. Florence Haun, Kenosha; Mrs. Katherine Reinken, Antioch; Mrs. Jessie Quincey and Mrs. Margaret Eldredge, both of Cary, Idaho. Relatives here today were waiting for messages from the daughters in Idaho before completing arrangements for the funeral.

Firemen to Give Free Dance Saturday

The Antioch Fire Department will give a free dance at the old Danish Hall on east Ida avenue on Saturday evening of this week. The public is invited to be guests of the firemen for the evening. Chief James Stearns, with William Anderson and Bob Wilton, assistants, are completing arrangements for the affair.

Attends Funeral of Uncle in Milwaukee

James Stearns and family tomorrow will attend the funeral of his uncle, Levi Stewart, 90 year old retired farmer, at Milwaukee. Mr. Stewart's father came to Milwaukee in 1834, and the family have lived in that vicinity for the last 100 years. Three daughters survive, all living in Milwaukee.

Attends Managers' Meeting

R. Eckert, owner-manager of the Gamble Store Agency in Antioch, Monday was in attendance at a convention of managers of the Gamble organizations held in Milwaukee. The 200 present heard talks on sales promotion and store displays. A banquet was held in the evening.

CRIBB HOMESTEAD AND FERNANDEZ RESIDENCE ARE DESTROYED BY FIRE

Antioch Department Gets Distant Calls on Cold-est Days

Antioch Firemen had a busy time last week when three fires on successive days called them from town on the coldest days of the year. Following the fire early Thursday when the local department succeeded in saving the Odd Fellows building and store of John Nett at Wilmette, a call late Friday took the firemen to the old Cribb homestead west of Lake Villa which despite the efforts of firemen from Lake Villa and Antioch and the bucket brigade staged by neighbors, was completely destroyed. Water was used from cisterns and tank trucks but the supply was not sufficient to extinguish the flames before the building was almost a total loss.

Old Landmark.

The homestead, which was the birthplace of John Cribb, village president of Lake Villa, was occupied in recent years by the Carl Bock family. Bock was in Lake Villa at the time of the fire and his wife and child were at the home of a neighbor. An uncle, Simon Gallagher, was in the home, and stated that the fire apparently started from an overheated chimney.

After water in tanks and cisterns was exhausted, trucks were sent to Cedar Lake where a hole was chopped in the ice and the water supply replenished. Neighbors worked with pails in fighting the flames. The house was an old landmark in the district.

Grass Lake Home Burned.

Flames Sunday destroyed the home of Joseph Fernandez on Grass Lake at an estimated loss of $4,000 not including clothing. The flames were beyond control when Antioch firemen arrived and they concentrated their efforts on saving the garage which housed the family sedan. Mrs. Fernandez and children left the afternoon before to visit her parents in Trevor, Wis., and Fernandez, who is employed by a trucking concern, was also away at the time. George Keulman, a roomer at the home, was in Antioch. Keulman's clothing, as well as that of the family was burned. A neighbor noticed the flames and called the fire department.

An Official Counter and an Official Checker to Assist the Court

After approving the petition of Bart Tyrrell, defeated Democratic candidate for sheriff, for a recount of the ballots cast for him and Lawrence A. Doolittle, Republican incumbent, Judge Perry L. Persons yesterday set the opening of the case for 9:15 o'clock Monday morning.

An official counter and an official checker to assist the court will be appointed by Judge Persons at the opening of the hearing.

The court ordered the petitioner to deposit $300 with the county clerk on Saturday to secure payment of the fees to the official counter and official checker, and then expressed his regret that counsel could not agree on conducting the recount of ballots for both sheriff and county clerk, instead of separating these cases. Petition for a separate recount was first entered by attorneys for Sheriff Doolittle.

It is estimated that with but one canvassing team working, more than a month will be consumed in checking the ballot.

URGE STATION REOPENING.

Reopening of the Great Lakes Naval training station is urged in a resolution adopted by the Waukegan city council this week. Copies of the resolution will be sent to senators and congressmen from Illinois with an urgent appeal to do all in their power to bring about the desired action.

RIDDLE ME THIS

A printer got into this mess. He is Paul Miller, foreman of the Bell Printing Company, Middleboro, Kentucky. This is the way Paul wrote to explain his domestic entanglement:

"Last year I asked her to be my wife and she gave me a decidedly negative reply, so to get even I married her mother. Then my father married the girl.

"When I married the girl's mother the girl became my daughter, and my father married my daughter, so he became my son. When my father married my daughter, she became my mother. If my father is my son and my daughter is my mother, who am I?"

"My mother's mother is my wife and must be my grandmother. So being my grandmother's husband, I must be my own grandfather. And there you are."

Dairy Evening School To Discuss Herd Improvement

On next Wednesday at 7:30 p.m. at the Antioch Township High School a discussion on Dairy Herd Improvement will be held.

How to find the non-profitable cow in the herd and remove her so that she cannot destroy the profit made by the good producer will be the problem. Several experts in this field may be on hand to tell of their experiences in Herd Improvement.

The main discussion will be in charge of C. L. Kutil, instructor of Vocational Agriculture.

A record audience was on hand last Wednesday to witness the demonstration on the manufacture of the new Dairy Spread.

Thirty-four were present last night at the second session of the school.

WILMETTE MAN IS ELECTED BANK CASHIER

At a recent meeting of the board of directors of the First National Bank of Antioch, Mr. Harold A. Smith, of Wilmette, Ill., was elected cashier to succeed S. Boyer Nelson who resigned.

C. K. Anderson, president of the bank, stated that the directors had received a number of applications and that in their opinion Mr. Smith's ability and experience as a banker best qualified him for the position.

For many years Mr. Smith was vice president and cashier of the L. M. Yocom & Co., bankers, Galva, Ill. Later he was an executive officer of the Chicago Joint Stock Land Bank. For several years he has resided in Wilmette. He expects to move his family to Antioch in the spring.

JUDGE SETS DATE FOR SHERIFF VOTE RECOUNT

After approving the petition of Bart Tyrrell, defeated Democratic candidate for sheriff, for a recount of the ballots cast for him and Lawrence A. Doolittle, Republican incumbent, Judge Perry L. Persons yesterday set the opening of the case for 9:15 o'clock Monday morning.

An official counter and an official checker to assist the court will be appointed by Judge Persons at the opening of the hearing.

The court ordered the petitioner to deposit $300 with the county clerk on Saturday to secure payment of the fees to the official counter and official checker, and then expressed his regret that counsel could not agree on conducting the recount of ballots for both sheriff and county clerk, instead of separating these cases. Petition for a separate recount was first entered by attorneys for Sheriff Doolittle.

It is estimated that with but one canvassing team working, more than a month will be consumed in checking the ballot.

STROKE FATAL TO WILMETTE MAN

Frederick V. Pella, 77, leaves six children.

Frederick Vincent Pella, 77, long a resident of Wilmette community, died at 1:30 o'clock Tuesday morning following a paralytic stroke Saturday at his farm home in Randall township.

He was born in Germany April 4, 1858, and came to America in 1883. After a few years residence in Chicago he came to Wilmette. He was married to Miss Matilda Kanis, who preceded him in death four years ago. Six children survive: Charles and Fred of Burlington; Herman, at home; Mrs. Bertha Ialey; Mrs. Grace Goodman, and Mrs. Anna Lukdike, of Kenosha.

Funeral services were held today at 1:30 o'clock from the home and from the Peace Evangelical church at 2:00. Rev. Jedeles officiating. Burial was in the Wilmette cemetery.

FOUR BILLION FOR NEW RECOVERY PROGRAM

According to the old saying, "The mills of the gods grind slowly—but they grind exceedingly fine." That adage can be accurately applied to the present Congress, as it considers the President's new recovery and relief program. It is moving slowly, it is talking a good deal, and it is gradually grinding out legislation toward the two principal projects of the White House—social security, and an unprecedentedly vast public works program, designed to eliminate the dole.

The public works program is of the most immediate interest. It will cost $4,000,000,000—the largest draft ever drawn against the United States Treasury for any single purpose. It will put about 3,500,000 men to work directly. And, if the President's hopes materialize, it will put another 3,500,000 to work indirectly, in jobs created by the spending power of the first 3,500,000.

Especially important are the promised principles upon which the program is predicted. All work is to be useful, in that it will either permanently improve living conditions or create new wealth. Pay for workers will be above the present "dole" level—but will be low enough so that the men employed will still keep an eye out for jobs in private business. Projects will be selected so as to use the largest possible amount of labor for the money spent. The money will be allocated on the basis of the greatest need—that is, a state which has 20 per cent of its people on relief will get more than a state which has but ten per cent on relief. It is said the public works program will avoid competition with private enterprise, which is justifiably jittery about government activities in the industrial field.

The list of possible public works has not been completed, but a number are known. Public buildings will be one. Bridge building will be another. Soil conservation and sanitation will come in for their share, as will tunnels, flood dams and forest conservation. Road building will naturally be near the head of the list.

But there was considerable dissatisfaction in Congress over the fact that the President wants the public works money under his control—Congressmen wanted to distribute it themselves. However, this idea seems to be definitely out—allocation of funds will be in the jurisdiction of the White House, through a board appointed by the President.

So far as the social security program is concerned it is finding rather hard going. It seems that every Congressman has his own idea as how the ill, the aged and the unemployed should be aided—there is much argument, many words and little agreement. By the time this is read, the so-called Townsend Plan, whereby every person over 60 would be given $200 a month by the government, will probably have been introduced in the lower house—proponents of the plan claim enough supporters to get it through. The President's influence, however, will be thrown aggressively against it, and in favor of a much more moderate policy.

DEVELOPMENT—TWO METHODS

Congress will be asked to create the Columbia Valley Authority—a twin bureau to the Tennessee Valley Authority. As part of the program Federal funds are being demanded for an industrial survey of present and potential markets for power in that region. All the taxpayers of the nation will put up money to find industries for a favored area.

Not so many years ago, railroad and private electric companies were spending their own earnings to develop every section of the nation. They helped with development campaigns of chambers of commerce. They advertised advantages of cities, counties and states in special editions of newspapers which were widely distributed. They got out illustrated literature to encourage home seekers to settle in every part of the country.

What a contrast to the present program of tax-exempt, tax-financed and tax-promoted business undertakings which discourage and in many cases prevent normal private development activity which formerly created steady jobs and earnings.

It is probably out of order to remember the days when private enterprise developed the nation's resources into tax-paying assets, as compared with the present program to create tax-exempt burdens for an over-taxed people.

ALL TAXES ARE SALES TAXES

No form of taxation is so bitterly assailed as the sales tax. The political "friends of the common people" have been especially virulent in denouncing it, on the grounds that the burden of the tax falls more heavily on persons of small and moderate means than on the wealthy.

That is all very well. But a very vital point that the people do not realize is this: There is no other kind of tax, so far as the effect is concerned, than the sales tax.

Every tax must be paid, and paid in full, by the ultimate consumers of goods and products. Every tax levied increases the cost of necessities and luxuries we need and buy and use. When we buy a pair of shoes we must pay a score of taxes—the tax that was paid by the raiser of the cattle, by the railroad that transported them, by the factory that tanned and cured the leather, by the manufacturer, by the distributor, and finally, that paid by the dealer is included in the cost of the pair of shoes we get. That is true of food, clothing, entertainment and everything else.

The "common people" families of moderate income—have the most to lose from tax extravagance, and the most to gain from tax economy. There aren't enough rich in this country to carry the cost of government for a week—all but a small part of government income stems indirectly from workers and salaried people and from those who have a little coming in from investments. The sales tax by name may be unpopular—but we all pay it. We cannot get rid of it—but we can, by mass action, demand governmental economy, efficiency and retrenchment that will lower its cost.

Weapons of Wasps, Bees
Wasps and bees are equipped with the most formidable weapons of defense of all insects. Many insects can bite and puncture with their mouth parts, but they can't do it as handily, neatly and effectively as the wasps can puncture with their sting. The sting of the common social wasp or bee is simply a weapon of defense which is not used so long as the insects are not disturbed or threatened with injury.

RED CROSS RELIEF GIVEN TO VICTIMS IN 103 DISASTERS

Tornadoes, Fires, Hurricanes, Floods, Epidemics, Make Record of Year

A history of the disasters in the United States in any year is written annually by the American Red Cross, according to Chairman John Barton Payne, commenting on the report for the year ending June 30, 1934, which has just been issued in Washington. "Because of the charter provision which places upon the Red Cross the responsibility for disaster relief, our chapter and staff workers are notified of all calamities of storm and fire and flood," he continued. "The emergency period may prove to be brief, in cases where the victims have their own resources to draw on. While it lasts, however, whether it brings the immediate need of food, clothing and shelter for the homeless, or entails a program of investigation and rehabilitation, the Red Cross is the official director of all relief."

A great variation in type, and a wide geographical distribution, characterize the 103 disasters reported last year. Tornadoes, hurricanes, hailstorms and other storms made up almost one half of the total. Especially numerous were the tropical storms which swept in from the sea to the Atlantic and Gulf Coast region. There were 21 storms of this type, establishing a new record for frequency.

Next in number to storms were disasters of fire, the report shows. Red Cross aid was given following 25 fires in the United States and insular possessions. The most spectacular was the Chicago stockyards fire, where Red Cross workers arrived shortly after the fire started, administering relief until the emergency period passed, giving first aid to about 1,000 persons.

Floods caused serious damage in some sections, 17 calling for Red Cross relief. Three explosions were reported, and three epidemics of malaria and typhoid fever. A school bus wreck was one of the year's tragedies for which Red Cross funds were needed for relief and rehabilitation.

"Technique acquired by the Red Cross in these disasters and the hundreds of others we have handled is at the service of the public," Chairman Payne said. "To make this possible the disaster relief service has issued a manual containing instructions to chapters interested in advance preparations for emergencies. Disaster institutes were held last year in 21 strategic locations, to enable Red Cross and civic workers to formulate plans for possible disaster emergencies in their communities."

Support of the disaster relief activities of the Red Cross comes from the annual roll call held each year from Armistice Day to Thanksgiving Day.

Trained to Save Lives

First aid certificates were issued by the Red Cross last year to 130,072 persons who finished the course of instruction put on by the chapters. Included in this list were more than 70,000 men, time clerks and other key employees on Federal Civil Works projects.

Further evidence of the government's endorsement of the first aid program is found in projects now under way where Red Cross chapters, at the request of the War Department, are giving first aid instruction in CCC camps. Where it has been requested by Army engineers the same instruction is also made available to key men working on federal water conservancy and flood control projects.

War Veterans' Problems Increase

Last year American Red Cross chapters dealt with the problems of nearly 400,000 veterans and their families. The workers find that as the years go on their responsibility increases rather than decreases. Changes in legislation, the increasing age of veterans and the consequent increase in physical ills, bring new needs for sympathetic treatment by trained Red Cross workers. In addition to this service to veterans the Red Cross served as the official medium between the people and the men in military and naval service, giving aid through this service last year to 6,979 men in the army, navy and marine corps.

Fires on Morro Castle and at Nome, Alaska, Received Help of Red Cross Workers

A number of tragic and unusual disasters have recently called for Red Cross relief.

Included in them have been a flood in Kentucky, following a series of cloudbursts in August; epidemics of disease which threatened several sections, including some caused by drought conditions. Red Cross workers found much to do for the survivors of the Morro Castle fire and for those engaged in rescue work; and Red Cross relief went by airplane to Alaska when the famous old gold camp, Nome, burned in September.

JURIES

There are several kinds of juries. Most commonly we see references to the Grand Jury, Petit Jury, and Coroner's Jury. The Coroner's Jury is one selected by the Coroner to investigate the cause of unnatural death on the theory that a crime has been committed. A Petit Jury is usually a jury of twelve persons or less, employed in the hearing of lawsuits in the various courts of the county. A Grand Jury differs from all other juries in that it is employed only in criminal investigation. It does not hear or try a lawsuit. It does not hear arguments of attorneys on both sides. It only hears such matters as are presented to it for investigation by the Court or by the State's Attorney, or by other means provided by law.

Under the law, twenty-three persons constitute a Grand Jury. They are the first department provided by law to determine whether a person shall be accused and summoned to trial for the violation of some law.

If they believe some person has committed a crime, they vote an indictment (indictment) which is an accusation. If they do not believe that there is sufficient evidence to hold a person for a trial, the vote "Not a true bill."

Several inquiries have been made whether a lawyer or a judge could serve on a jury. In this respect, it might be noted that the law of Illinois specifically provides certain exemptions as to jury service as to certain persons. The law reads the following persons shall be exempt from serving as jurors: The Governor, Lieutenant Governor, Secretary of State, Auditor of Public Accounts, Treasurer, Superintendent of Public Instruction, Attorney General, members of the General Assembly during their term of office, all Judges of Courts, all Clerks of Courts, Sheriffs, Coroners, Post-Masters, mail-carriers, practicing attorneys, all officers of the United States, officiating ministers of the Gospel, school teachers during the term of school, practising physicians, registered and assistant pharmacists, constant ferrymen, mayors of cities, policemen, active members of the fire department, embankers, undertakers and funeral directors actively engaged in their business, and all persons actively employed upon the editorial or mechanical staffs and departments of any newspaper of general circulation, printed and published in this state, all legally qualified veterinarians actively engaged in the practice of their profession, provided that every fireman who shall have faithfully and actively served as such in any volunteer fire department in any city of this state for the term of seven years may thereafter be exempt from serving on juries in all courts.

There is also a provision that every officer and enlisted man of the National Guard or Naval Reserve shall be exempt from jury duty during the time he shall hold a commission as an officer or be enrolled as an enlisted man. The exemption from jury duty shall continue after honorable discharge for a period equal to that honorably completed in the National Guard or Naval Reserve.

To serve as a juror, the law requires a person to be of the age of twenty-one years or upwards, and under sixty-five years old, in the possession of their natural faculties and not infirm or decrepit, free from all legal exceptions, of fair character, of approved integrity, of sound judgment, well informed, and who understands the English language.

In the next issue we shall take up the question of Abstracts of Title.

WARN OF NEW
GYP RACKETS
IN WISCONSIN

State Department Says That Swindlers Are on Way Southward

Officials of the Wisconsin department of agriculture Monday issued a warning to cities in southern Wisconsin that at least three swindlers were headed in that direction. The new rackets devised by gyp artists were uncovered by the Wisconsin officials. The activities of the swindlers concern the buying of cattle and milk and the sale of Bibes.

The cattle-buying racket has been worked by a trucker in Washburn, Burnett, Wood, Trempealeau, Marathon and other counties. The trucker approaches farmers with stories about the high prices being paid at public auctions in southern Wisconsin and persuades them to let him do the hauling. At the same time he vastly underestimates the expenses, particularly his own charges for hauling and in a number of instances, net returns to farmers have ranged from $1.50 to $3.50 per cow while the trucker has charged from $8 to $10 per head for hauling. After gyping farmers in one community, the trucker moves on to another where he is not known.

Skips With Milk Money.

The milk-buying racket is carried on by fly-by-night milk dealers who set up a temporary buying station in some town and offer relatively high prices for milk. They generally pay a couple of months rent in advance and attempt to convince local business men and others in the community that they are locating there permanently, but at the end of six weeks they abscond without paying for any of the milk they have purchased, and the producers lose.

The Bible selling racket has been worked only in Madison thus far, the departmental report states. An agent representing himself to be from a reputable Pennsylvania publishing house takes orders for Bibles and Bible dictionaries, obtaining full payments of $2.50 to $7.00 if possible.

If the purchaser refuses to make the complete payment, the fake-agent accepts a down payment of from 50 cents to a dollar, promising delivery in 10 days. In no instance have any deliveries been made, and the fake-agent is now probably working in some other community.

Misses Eileen Osmond, Ruth Cremin, Hazel Hawkins and Lillian Vykruft of DeKalb spent the weekend at their homes.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Kennedy of Chicago spent the weekend at the Hachmeister home.

Mrs. Eleanor Micheli left today

This Week in Washington

by RALPH E. CHURCH

Washington, D. C., January 26—The two major items before Congress in the past week have been the World Court and the House Joint Resolution making an appropriation of $4,880,000,000 to the Executive.

Treaty-making powers lie with the President and the Senate. It is not the privilege of a Member of Congress to vote on such matters as the entrance of the United States into the League of Nations or World Court. The general procedure is for the President, through the Department of State, to enter into negotiations with foreign countries and to submit his proposal to the Senate for ratification.

Senate galleries were filled, with many waiting in line, in the hope to hear Senator William E. Borah, of Idaho, take the floor to renew his fight against the United States joining the World Court. Borah has served in the Senate since 1907 and is ranking minority member of the Foreign Relations Committee. He first began his fight against entrance into the World Court in 1920, when the proposal was first presented to the Senate. His 70 years have not weakened his oratorical powers and vigor. Borah's fight against the Court and the League is a historic event repeated.

Last Friday the House passed a resolution making a blank check appropriation of $4,880,000,000 to the President, with virtually no strings attached. It would be the power of the President under the provisions of this resolution to spend this large sum practically as he sees fit, to promulate the rules and regulations for its administration and to consolidate or create whatever agencies or corporations he may desire. The resolution confers on the Executive large legislative powers, the constitutionality of which is questionable, inasmuch as it allows the Executive to act as the legislature by the means of Executive Orders. It was on this phase of the matter of the appropriation that the debate took place.

When the measure was before the Committee on Appropriations, only three witnesses testified, all of whom represented the Administration; Secretary of Treasury Morgenthau, Director of the Budget Bell, and Admiral Peoples, Director of the Procurement Division. The Secretary of the Treasury and Director of the Budget testified as to the financing of this amount, and Admiral Peoples testified in general terms as to the administration. From reliable sources I understand it was anything but a thorough presentation of the intentions and possible progress in the administering of the funds.

In order that our people may have the needed relief and at the same time reserve for Congress its right to legislate, to protect business, industry, commerce and the private individual from the dangers of Executive Orders, I proposed a motion that this particular bill be presented to the House which would not destroy the Congress' right to legislate. The matter of proper relief for our people and its proper supervision by Congress prompted me to address the House on the inadvisability of passing this particular bill.

The state office of the I. A. A. in Chicago reports that advance reservations indicate the meeting will be one of the largest in attendance, if not the largest, since the organization was founded in 1916. A crowd of between 4,000 and 5,000 Illinois farmers representing the 94 county Farm Bureaus of the state was forecast by Secretary George E. Metzger of the State Association.

Official delegates from this county selected at the last annual meeting of the Farm Bureau are as follows: H. Dunker, A. J. Stahl, G. H. He is survived by his brother, John, and a sister, Mrs. Josephine Phillips of Magnolia, Ill. Funeral services were held in St. Patrick's church, Wadsworth, Monday morning, Jan. 28th.

Only Three Have Made the Grade

Says the Waukegan News-Sun: "Governor Horner, who is sure to run for re-election, will try to do something that no other Democratic governor of Illinois has done. That is to succeed himself. Only three governors in the history of the state have ever been re-elected for successive terms, and all of them were Republicans. They were Shelby M. Cullom, Springfield; Charles S. Deane, Edwardsville, and Len Small, Kankakee. A third Republican, Richard J. Oglesby, was elected for three terms, but never for two in succession."

MACARONI AND SPAGHETTI

It has been said that gluten is to wheat what lean is to meat, one writer stating that purchasing macaroni is like buying meat and getting less bone, less gristle, and less fat, but twice as much lean for one's expenditure.

Macaroni is sometimes eaten plain boiled, but more frequently with the addition of cheese, of a creamy sauce or of a tomato sauce, sometimes reinforced by a small quantity of meat, particularly chicken.

Italian Spaghetti

1 package spaghetti or macaroni, cooked until tender in boiling salted water. Drain and rinse with cold water.

1 lb. of round steak ground, or hamburg fried with 4 or 5 onions.

1 can tomato soup, 1 tablespoon bread molasses, salt and pepper, 1 minced green pepper may be added. Can be baked if desired.

Macaroni and Cheese

3 cups macaroni, broken in pieces

1 cup grated dry cheese

1 cup stale bread crumbs

1/4 cup butter

1 cup thin cream

3 teaspoons salt

Put the macaroni in boiling salted water and cook until soft; drain and pour cold water over it. Cover the bottom of a buttered baking dish thinly with bread crumbs. Add a layer of macaroni, and then one of cheese. Sprinkle with salt and bits of butter. Repeat this until the dish is full, having a layer of crumbs and cheese on top. Pour over all the cream. Bake at 450 degrees F. for one-half hour or until top is nicely browned. Hard boiled eggs, sliced, may be used in place of cheese.

Macaroni Salad

2 cups cooked macaroni

1 onion chopped

1 green pepper, chopped

1 cup celery, chopped

1 pimento, chopped

1 apple, chopped

Marinate the macaroni with French dressing. Toss all the ingredients together in a salad bowl. Chill thoroughly and serve with mayonnaise dressing.

Escalloped Oysters with Spaghetti

1 quart oysters

2 tablespoons flour

1 teaspoon salt

1/4 teaspoon pepper

1/4 minced celery

1 cup milk

2 tablespoons butter or shortening

1/4 cup dry bread crumbs

3 cups cooked spaghetti

Drain the oysters and roll each one in flour, salt and pepper which have been mixed together on a plate. Grease a baking dish and put into it a thin layer of crumbs, next a little celery, then a layer of spaghetti, and one of oysters. Repeat this till all is used. Pour in milk and sprinkle over top with bread crumbs, moistening with the remaining butter, melted. Bake in a moderate oven, 350 degrees F., for half an hour.

My Favorite Recipes

Frances Lee Barton says:

In my search for appetizing economic main dishes of meat or fish, I find that the recipes of European housewives make some very tempting courses.

I found, too, that a small quantity of tapioca added just the right amount of body to this Casserole of Fish.

It took all the juices to just the right degree, without making the food in the least bit stodgy.

Casserole of Fish, Italian Style

1/4 pound (1 cup) mushrooms, washed and sliced; 1/3 cup diced celery; 1 medium onion, finely chopped; 4 tablespoons butter; 3 tablespoons quick-cooking tapioca;

1/4 teaspoons salt; 1/4 teaspoon poppy; 2 teaspoons sugar; 2 cups diced cooked haddock or cod; 3 cups canned tomatoes.

3 to 10 unbaked baking powder biscuits, rolled 1/4 inch thick.

Sauté mushrooms, celery, and onion in butter until tender. Combine with remaining ingredients in order given. Turn into greased casserole and bake in hot oven (425° F.)

25 minutes, stirring mixture twice during first 10 minutes of baking. Place biscuits on top of fish mixture after it has baked 10 minutes; return to oven, and bake

12 to 15 minutes longer, or until biscuits are browned. Serves 8.

Decorators Classify Value of Colors

Among the interior decorators, most colors used for walls and buildings in equipment in homes are classed as warm or cool.

Of interest to those who are mod-ernizing their home during the winter is the fact that warm colors include all modifications of red and yellow, from the palest straw tint down through orange and brown, and from the most delicate rose color to the deepest crimson and mahogany.

Blue, green, and grey are considered cool colors, suitable to small cool rooms. They soften the tone of a room and give it a restful atmosphere.

Ways To Prevent Catching A Cold

Avoid Chills; Super-Heated Dry Air Is Bad; Stay Away From Cold Sufferers

By Dr. Wilson G. Smillie
Professor of Public Health Administration, Harvard University School of Public Health

How can we prevent a cold? Since we know that colds are catching, we should make every attempt to avoid close contact with those who have an acute cold. This is particularly important during the first three days of the disease.

Some exposure is unavoidable. There are a few simple rules to follow, however, which probably aid in preventing colds, even if one is exposed. The rooms in which we live should have a suitable temperature and humidity. The super-heated air of an office or apartment may reach a temperature of 80 degrees. The air becomes as dry as that of the desert so that the membranes of the nose and throat become parched and cannot perform their normal protective functions. This condition predisposes to colds.

Are Wet Feet Harmful? The body surface should be kept warm and dry. If the skin becomes chilled, one is apt to catch cold. Mothers worry when their children play in the snow or rain and get their feet wet. Wet feet are not harmful so long as the child is active and exercising, but if a person sits quietly in school or office all day with wet feet, the body surface becomes chilled, thus predisposing to a cold.

Many people believe that alcohol is of value in preventing colds. When one is chilled, alcohol does give a feeling of warmth, but causes flushing of the skin and great loss of heat. If one is continuously exposed to the cold, as on a long drive in freezing weather or working all day in the cold rain, a series of drinks of whiskey may do real harm.

When one finally comes from a long cold trip, however, all wet and chilled, shivering and cold, and does not need to go out any more that day, a reasonable drink of alcohol is of definite value in bringing about a rapid flushing of the skin and a warm, comfortable glow. The same effect may be obtained, though somewhat more slowly, with a hot mustard foot bath and a drink of hot coffee.

Things Worth Trying When washing dishes which have been used for either raw or cooked fish add about two heaping tablespoons of baking soda to the dishwater. This deodorizes the dishes, dishwater and dishcloth.

To keep a bowl from sliding and turning around when you are mixing with one hand and adding ingredients with the other, put a folded towel under the bowl.

Always rinse chamois and doekins gloves in soapy water and dry them where the heat is not intense if you wish to keep your gloves in good condition.

When roasting chicken or turkey place the fowl with breast down in the baking pan for the first half hour of roasting. This allows the juices to flow into the breast, making it moist and tender.

For a change add beaten egg whites to caramel pie filling instead of using them for meringue.

For variety sprinkle some grated cheese over the top of raisin, apple or mince pie and heat for five minutes in a moderate oven. Serve at once.

Vanilla Caramels 2 cups granulated sugar 1 cup white syrup 1 level teaspoon butter 1 cup evaporated milk 1/2 cup sweet milk 1 teaspoon vanilla

Mix evaporated milk and sweet milk until like thin cream. Mix sugar and syrup with 1/2 milk mixture and cook to soft ball. Add half the remaining milk mixture, stir constantly and cook again to soft ball, then stir in rest of milk mixture and cool to firm ball, adding just before taking from fire the butter and vanilla. Turn, without beating, into buttered tin to 1/4 inch depth, mark in squares and cut apart when almost cold. The continued cooking makes these caramels especially rich and fine flavored.

LAUNCH DRIVE TO MODERNIZE FARM HOMES

Campaign Gets Under Way With Cooperation of State Groups

A campaign to acquaint 6,250,000 farmers of the United States with the provisions of the National Housing Act, which makes possible the modernization of their homes and equipment, is being launched by the Federal Housing Administration, in cooperation with State and county farm organizations. The present plan is to bring the campaign to a climax before the farmers become too busy with their spring plowing.

A small group of field men of the Farm Section of the Housing Administration will work under the Regional Directors, and in cooperation with the State Associate Directors in charge of modernization, in their efforts to bring the direct attention of all the farmers in the country to the benefits which are available to them under the modernization program.

Contact Various States.

Letters have been sent to heads of farm organizations in each State asking for their aid in this intensive campaign. One of the first steps will be to form State advisory committees on rural housing. Among the officials and organizations which are being invited to cooperate in forming these committees are the State Extension Director, State Home Demonstration Director, Home Management Specialist, head of the Agricultural Engineering Department, Extension Agricultural Engineer, Director of Vocational Education, Emergency Relief Administrator, President of the State Farm Bureau, Master of the State Grange, and President of the State Farmers' Union.

Present plans include the organization of campaigns in most of the 3,072 counties of the United States, with special meetings in which the local civic bodies will be asked to take part.

Wherever the Better Housing Committees are organized on a county-wide basis, these committees will be asked to enlarge their activities in order to include farm modernization.

Where there are no county-wide committees, the Housing Administration's representatives will seek the active cooperation of all agencies in the county interested directly in farm improvement.

Warm Milk Helps Relax Active Child

A few more days will find most school children busy with examinations and the usual excitement attendant upon the end of one semester and the beginning of another. Parents who realize the strain that a child is under at such a time will find themselves amply repaid for any special efforts they may make to see that out-of-school conditions are as ideal as possible.

Here are a few hints on how you might help that boy or girl of yours to do his very best in school without undue strain upon his health and nerves.

What Vocation Shall My Boy Choose?

By Samuel Baker,

Building the Nation's Highways

It is estimated that during 1934 and 1935 there will have been spent over $1,000,000,000 on the construction, improvement and maintenance of the highways and streets of the United States. Road building is the most active branch of the construction industry.

According to the latest available figures, we have in this country approximately 3,000,000 miles of highways of which only about 130,000 miles have been provided with a high-type surface and not more than 750,000 miles have been surfaced at all. Fully three-quarters of our roads are entirely unimproved. Far more remains to be done than has already been accomplished. Highway engineering offers a field of unusual opportunity for the young man planning his career.

Like all other branches of the engineering profession, highway engineering requires technical training. Surveying and mapping, the characteristics of various soils and the treatment each requires to serve best as bed for a highway, the selection of the best route and most suitable surface for a proposed road, the proper methods of construction, for various types of roads, highway lighting and beautification—these are only a few of the subjects that enter into the training of a highway engineer.

The necessary technical knowledge can be acquired through study at an engineering school, but if this is impractical the gate is not closed. The present activity in road construction provides an opportunity for the young man interested in highway engineering to get started in that field with little or no special training. The technical knowledge he must possess for advancement he can obtain through study. It is a spare time. This is the course followed by many successful men in the profession. It remains open to any ambitious young man.

crackers after school will relax tired muscles and nerves and enable him to enjoy playing outdoors.

A quiet, well lighted, well ventilated and properly heated place in which he may study undisturbed is essential to good work.

If extra study at home is necessary, excuse him from some other tasks but do not cut down on outdoor exercise. He needs the relaxation such exercise affords.

Insist that he get sufficient sleep. Lasting knowledge is seldom gained by late studying or cramming.

Have nourishing and appetizing meals ready on schedule so that no time is wasted. Be sure to include the "protective foods"—fruits, vegetables, and fresh pasteurized milk.

After a child has spent the evening studying, another glass of warm milk will send him to bed with nerves relaxed and ready for a night of refreshing sleep.

Kingbird Marked by Tail

Many bird books give the red crown mark of the kingbird undue prominence, for it is usually concealed and seldom noticed. If you will observe that white band at the tip of the kingbird's fan-like tail, you will make no mistake as to its identity.

READER RECALLS GOOD OLD DAYS IN ANTIOCH TOWN

D. H. Hughes Taught School Here 63 Years Ago; Enjoys News

(Older subscribers will especially appreciate the contents of a letter received by the News this week from H. D. Hughes who lives now in Florida and who is one of the oldest readers of the old home town paper. Mr. Hughes' letter is here published in full.)

Lynn Haven, Fla., Jan. 22, 1935

ANTIOCH NEWS:
We were sorry to read in the last issue of your paper to reach us that the church at Millburn had burned, and that Charley Wilton and son had been robbed. Charley Wilton went to school to the writer when his legs were hardly long enough to get through the snow to the old Cribb school where I taught sixty-three years ago.

Charley Blunt gave you the history of that school up to the time I taught there. And I well remember the night Charley came back from Michigan where he had gone to marry Tilly Harden. I was boarding at Mat. Cribb's at the time, and a church supper was under way. Jay Cribb's mother asked Charley how he liked married life, and he said, "O it's better than gum."

Collin McCloud was on earth then as well as all the Richard boys, Jack, Cole, Uriah, Tad, and I know not how many more. I boarded around and got $20 a month and bought a new pair of boots from Levi Simons who kept store in Antioch at that time, with a part of my first month's salary.

Also I remember that someone with plenty of help put somebody's buggy on top of that first old frame church at Millburn, where it remained for some days. The thills and two wheels sat straddle of the ridge very quietly. That was in the days when such men as John Williamson, A. T. White, Jim McCann and a host of kindred spirits did a lot of unnecessary, if amusing things. Jack Smith and J. M. Strang followed in their wake and they might have lent a hand with the buggy, either up or down.

I also remember Mike Burke, John's father, told me what the first font of type cost when John started THE ANTIOCH NEWS. I think it was $500. Like Ira Boylan, we enjoy reading the forty year ago stuff when the giant Johnny Perkins came to town with Foltz from Burlington, Wis. Also about that time Hugh Brogan and Harrison Jones came to blow in the streets as well as Teddy Richards and Charley Pullen had a "set-to."

I think that I saw my first tame strawberries in Bill Ring's garden just north of where the M. E. Church now stands, but we could pick bushels of wild ones on the old farm then.

All these things are now gone from the earth except that the ANTIOCH NEWS still brings us pleasure which brings me to the point of saying, Find enclosed $1.50 so that our pleasure may continue. We expect our two daughters to visit us in the near future and our son K. R. Hughes is here to stay as long as we do.

H. D. HUGHES.

Nobel Cain and Choir Please Large Audience

An audience of 400 heard Nobel Cain and his Shorwood choir of 65 voices in a concert program Tuesday night at the Wilmett gymnasium. Sacred songs, negro spirituals and opera selections made up a program of unusual merit. Choir members wore red gowns with white collars and presented an impressive sight. The choir sang without musical accompaniment.

SEQUOITS LOSE TO BENSENVILLE

Measles Cause Absence of Four at Grade School

Antioch fell a victim to overconfidence Friday night when they lost to Bensenville 21-12. The game was marked by a ragged Antioch offense and a very loose defense. Bishop was able to hit the basket for only two buckets and this was the high point record of the evening. Kinnaman and Franzen dropped in four and three baskets respectively for Bensenville.

The Antioch lightweight squad took an early lead but won by only two points. Williamson and Jacobs scored three baskets apiece for the locals. Jacob's play was especially commendable. The lightweights fumbled a great deal but managed to hold back Bensenville long enough to win by a score of 14-12.

The Freshmen lost a hopeless battle to Allendale 23-4.

On Thursday, January 31, the second round to the Conference Tournament will be played here. At 7:30 Barrington will meet Libertyville, and at 8:30 Antioch will meet the winner of the Warren-Wauconda game which will be played at Warren on Wednesday evening.

Concert Is Planned for March 8 at H. S.

The annual High School music concert will be held in the high school auditorium on March 8. The musical organizations which will participate are the Girls' Glee Club, the Chorus, Jazz Band, and Band.

Ruth Nelson and Jeanette Peterson will present a number of solos. The jazz band will appear in a very unusual presentation. Some very clever dance numbers will be presented by June Nolte and Ruth Chin, and a selected girls' trio will sing a number of the popular songs with the jazz band. The concert will be followed by a dance. The Chorus and Glee Club will sing a number of negro spirituals and sacred pieces.

The admission will be 25¢ for the concert and an additional 25¢ for the dance.

Club Debates

The Home Economics club had a debate in their meeting on Jan. 30. The question was "Resolved, the Modern Girl is Superior to the Old Fashioned Girl." Affirmative, Margaret Denman and Lillian Musch; Negative, Florence Dunford and Alice Palaska.

Prizes Will Be Awarded

The winners in the Puzzle Club contest are Chester Craft and Everett Truax. The prizes will be awarded in assembly some time this week.

Grade Teams Drop Two to Grayslake

Both first and second teams of Antioch's grade school basketball squad last night lost to Grayslake. The second team was defeated in the first game, 7 to 5, and the first team lost, 10 to 8.

The team standing in the conference is now .500, with three wins and three losses. There are six more games on the schedule.

PUPILS SEE MOVIE— "COUNT OF MONTE CHRISTO"

Both grade and high school pupils yesterday attended the matinee performance of the "Count of Monte Christo" at the Antioch theatre. The picture is considered of educational value because of its historical interest.

A party in honor of Bobby Kufalk's sixth birthday was given after school Wednesday.

Roy Aronson of the sixth grade fell Friday and cut his head so badly that several stitches had to be taken.
